Sergeant Major David M. Doyon
Band Sergeant Major

Sergeant Major David M. Doyon assumed the post as the Enlisted Bandleader, The U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command in August of 2006. Born and raised in Brunswick, Maine, he enlisted in the Army as a percussionist on August 5th, 1980, after completing two years of a four-year program in music education at the University of Maine at Orono. After graduating from Basic Training at Fort Dix, New Jersey, he attended Advanced Individual Training at the Armed Forces School of Music located at the Naval Amphibious Base in Norfolk, Virginia. Throughout his career, SGM Doyon held every musical and key leadership position from section and squad leader to Sergeant Major while serving with the 389th Army Band, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, the 79th Army Band in Republic of Panama, the 282nd Army Band, Fort Jackson, South Carolina, the Armed Forces School of Music, Norfolk, Virginia, the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe International Band in Casteau, Belgium, the United States Continental Army Band, Fort Monroe, Virginia, the 9th Army Band, Fort Wainwright, Alaska, and the 8th Army Band, Seoul, Republic of Korea.

Most noteworthy of his assignments were as Chief Instructor, in the Office of Army Advanced Courses at the Armed Forces School of Music and as the Bandmaster of the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe Band. As the chief instructor, SGM Doyon taught Army Band non-commissioned officers, warrant officers, and commissioned officers in subjects such as music theory, ceremonial conducting, and techniques of small unit administration. SGM Doyon was only the fourth enlisted man ever chosen to serve as the Bandmaster of the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe Band.

SGM Doyon's professional military education includes the Primary Leadership Course, the Basic and Advanced Noncommissioned Officers' Courses, the First Sergeants' Course, and United States Army Sergeants' Major Academy Class 53. His civilian education includes a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology from Coker College in Hartsville, South Carolina, and a Masters of Education Degree from Regent University in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

His awards and decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with four oak leaf clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with one oak leaf cluster, the Joint Service Achievement Medal, the Army Achievement medal with one silver and one bronze oak leaf clusters, the Good Conduct Medal 7th award, the National Defense Medal with one bronze star, and the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal.
